

Personal alarms can give women the sense of security and help them develop independence

Equalizer Self Defense Key Chain

Leave The Fear Home And Go Out Alone With Your Dependable Guardian And Protector.

Designed and built for your safety, this user-friendly alarm keychain is your perfect self-defense tool and acts as a shield for you against any threat. You can now live the time of your life and enjoy each outing/hangout/date without having a fear of being attacked or mugged. Whenever you feel unsafe, all you have to do is pull out the pin, and the alarm will produce a 130DB ear-piercing alarm drawing people's attention even at a distance. This small, easy to use and light-weighted gadget is a perfect gift for women, children, and seniors. Imagine the peace of mind, knowing you and your loved ones are now safe and sound with this personal safety alarm keychain!
